

Five Ways to Bring LGBTQ Crisis Intervention and Suicide Prevention to Your School

Order a free Trevor Resource Poster to display:
TheTrevorProject.org/Lifeguard

Dedicate one class period to teaching The Lifeguard Workshop:
TheTrevorProject.org/Lifeguard

Check to see if you can access The Trevor Project's website from a school computer. If not, submit your county to:
LGBTtech.org/dontblocklgbt and ask for the website to be unblocked: #DontBlockLGBT

Check to see if your school has a suicide prevention policy and if it includes LGBTQ students. If not, check out our Model School Policy: TheTrevorProject.org/ModelSchool

Find more resources, books, and curriculum on The Trevor Project's Pinterest: Pinterest.com/TrevorProject

One supportive person can make a difference! If you or someone you know is feeling suicidal, call the TrevorLifeline at 866-488-7386. More resources are available at TheTrevorProject.org. Thank you for making your school a safe space for LGBTQ Youth!
