

MAJORITY SUPPORT FOR OVERTURNING THE TRANSGENDER MILITARY BAN

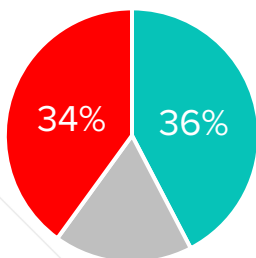

- Three in five adults, a majority, support allowing openly transgender people to serve in the United States military while a quarter oppose.
- Majority support for allowing openly transgender people serve in the U.S. military emerges among Democrats and independents.

Republicans Age <38

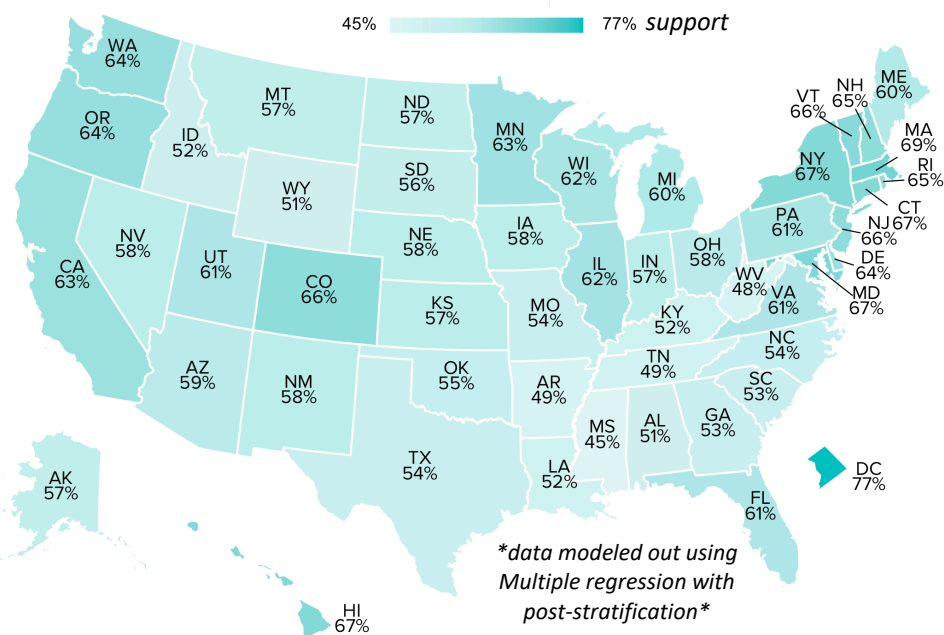

Republicans Age +38

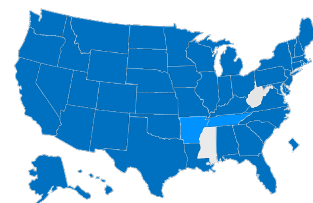

- A majority of young Republicans (<38) support allowing openly transgender people serving in the U.S. military while a plurality of older Republicans (38+) support it yet are more divided.
- More than half of military households (52%), a majority, support allowing transgender people serve in the U.S. military.

NATIONWIDE SUPPORT FOR ALLOWING TRANSGENDER PEOPLE TO SERVE IN THE MILITARY

- Support for allowing transgender people serve in the U.S. military enjoys majority support in all but two states, including the District of Columbia: Mississippi and West Virginia.

STATES WITH MAJORITY SUPPORT

*Lighter Blue States are within the Margin of Error of majority support

This poll was conducted between December 7-December 14, 2020 among a national sample of 11000 Adults. The interviews were conducted online and the data were weighted to approximate a target sample of Adults based on age, gender, educational attainment, race, and region. Results from the full survey have a margin of error of plus or minus 1 percentage points.